Elevated Living, Redefined

The Kimberley 294 is a striking split-level design that delivers generous space, smart separation, and effortless modern living. Designed with flexibility in mind, this four-bedroom home also features a dedicated study and multiple living zones, making it ideal for growing families or those needing extra room to work and unwind.

With bedrooms thoughtfully positioned across both levels, the layout offers a perfect balance of privacy and connection. The open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area forms the heart of the home, flowing seamlessly to outdoor decks — perfect for entertaining or relaxing.

Complete with a spacious master suite, double garage, and a design that embraces both functionality and lifestyle, the Kimberley 294 is built for the way you live today.
